I understand that I have agreed to become a Producer of the _____ RADIO/PODCAST SHOW and understand the features of the package. I understand that full payment of the 1st month is due before the airing of my first show. I understand that my fee is non-refundable. I understand that I am able to upgrade or downgrade my show at any time before the next 30 days of payment and must give notice of the change via email at least 2 weeks prior to my scheduled payment date. I understand that I am able to cancel my show any time after the first 30 days of becoming a producer.

I understand I must give a 14-day notice via email before cancelling to allow notification to audiences and for scheduling purposes or a $25.00 fee will be assessed. I understand that moving forward, producer fees are due between the 1st and 3rd of the month and will be set as a recurring charge unless advised otherwise. I understand that if payment arrangements have not been made to pay after the due date previous to the due date coming present and payment is received late, a late fee of $25 will be assessed and my show will not air until payment has been made. I understand that if payment arrangements are made to pay after the due date, my show will not air until that payment arrangement has been met. I understand that all invoices will include a 3.5% transaction processing fee.

I understand that I have 1 hour allotted to complete a commercial drop for my show and any time exceeding that one hour, I will be responsible for paying directly to the engineer at the conclusion of my session. I understand that engineer fees are $12 for every half hour and $15 for every hour. I understand that (This clause does not apply to those sending in pre-recorded shows). I understand that all invoices will include a 3.5% transactions processing fee.

I understand that I must call at least 3 to 24 hours in advance to cancel my show and ask for a replay unless there is an emergency at the last minute should I not be able to broadcast during my scheduled time. I understand that if I do not call within the allotted time and the engineer travels to studio and is waiting, I will be responsible for paying the $20 travel and time fee for the engineer before my next show. I understand that if I am more than 15 minutes late for my show and I do not call to inform the engineer, my show will be subject to a replay for that day as the engineers are allowed to return home after 15 minutes of waiting for producers to arrive. I understand that in the event I have notified the engineer of late arrival, music and commercials will be aired to entertain listeners until the show begins and whatever time is left in the show, is the time I must complete my broadcast. I understand that in the event an engineer is late, my show will be extended for however many minutes of airtime not used. I understand the engineer and myself have a 5 minutes grace period after my show is scheduled to begin as circumstances do arrive. I understand that should tardiness become an issue on the engineer's behalf, I am to notify the Chief engineer or CEO and ½ hour or hourly fee of $12 - $15 will be given to the host for the current week the show began late. I understand that engineers and producers are advised to arrive no later than 15 minutes prior to the show to allow enough time to prepare. (This clause does not apply to those sending in pre-recorded shows).

I understand that my show is subject to termination during my show or any time after my show (if I refuse to follow the guidelines of content) without refund in the event I violate the rules or standards of JQLM RADIO to include but not limited to: theft, playing explicit lyrics, not adhering to the building's regulations, jeopardizing the integrity of the station, or causing any physical harm to others or sowing discord among the station.

I release JQLM RADIO of any and all liability concerning such things and circumstances and understand it is my responsibility to look after and secure that which belongs to me and those who accept my invitation. I understand that I am responsible for my guests and that it is my responsibility to make sure they are abiding by the rules set forth. I understand that I am responsible for picking up after myself and guests should anything be left behind and ensure the equipment used is returned to the proper setup upon leaving the station. I understand that in the event any equipment is damaged due to carelessness or intentional misuse, I will be responsible for replacing it.

I have read, understand and agree to the terms of this agreement. I understand this agreement is legally binding in the state of Indianapolis, Indiana.
